Meet Mark Livingstone

Mark Livingstone NMLS #183229

Professional Affiliations: Maryland Association of Mortgage Brokers, The Better Business Bureau, and the National Association of Mortgage Brokers.

Service: Volunteer firefighter, Cabin John Park Volunteer Fire Department (member since 2002, currently serving as a Sergeant, served as Treasurer for six years)

Mark Livingstone has over 21 years of experience in the mortgage industry and has received numerous awards for his professionalism and contributions.

Mark is a graduate of Towson State University with a degree in Criminal Justice. He began working in the mortgage industry in 1992 and quickly became aware of a need for a mortgage brokerage firm founded on integrity, strong principles, and value-added relationships.

Today, Mark and his team at Cornerstone First Financial are leading professionals in the mortgage industry identifying specific financial needs of individuals and families, whether they are first-time home buyers or looking to consolidate debt through refinancing.

Outside of his company and his work with the Cabin John Park Volunteer Fire Department, Mark enjoys traveling, exercising, and other volunteer work. He has explored exciting places such as Israel, Egypt and Europe and is an active member of McLean Bible Church. He has been to Ethiopia three times, most recently leading a Christian Missions Team with his fellowship.

He is also a real estate investor with a portfolio of DC area investment properties. He recently completed his first large condo development in NE, Washington, DC.

Cornerstone FIRST FINANCIAL L.L.C.

cornerstonefirst.com

Personal Attention Through Closing

2300 Wisconsin Avenue, NW
Suite 400B
Washington, DC 20007

(202) 625-1221 / (866) 625-1221

info@cornerstonefirst.com